Nico Elliott-Armstrong is a member of the 2018 summer student class at Cassels Brock.

Nico is a J.D. candidate at the University of Windsor, Faculty of Law. She is an active member of the Windsor Law community as a case worker with Community Legal Aid, as a member of Pro Bono Students Canada and as a Board Member of CJAM, Windsor's non-profit campus-based community radio station.

Nico graduated with an honours Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Toronto. Prior to law school, Nico worked in the film post-production sector in Toronto and in music publishing for a prominent Toronto independent record label. She maintains her passion for the arts as a volunteer for Artists' Legal Advice Services of Toronto, and the Toronto Womxn in Music Network.

In her time off, Nico is passionate about exploring the food, history, art and culture of cities all over the world, and in her hometown of Toronto. In the fall of 2018, Nico is excited to embark on an academic exchange to the Université Jean Moulin in Lyon, France, to study international and European business law. Nico is an avid traveller, her next ambitious destination is through the PATH without getting lost.
