"Sensible, innovative and hard-working."
- Client Testimonial, Chambers Global

Wendy Berman, the head of the Securities Litigation and White Collar Crime and Regulatory Response groups at Cassels Brock, is recognized as one of Canada's leading securities litigators by Chambers Global, the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory, the Lexpert Guide to the Leading 500 Lawyers in Canada, the Lexpert Guide to the Leading US/Canada Cross-Border Litigation Lawyers in Canada and Best Lawyers in Canada. She has extensive experience in complex commercial and securities-related litigation, often involving parallel and cross-border regulatory, criminal and class action proceedings. Wendy regularly provides strategic advice and representation to companies and their directors and officers in all aspects of matters relating to allegations of corporate misconduct, including internal and external investigations. She has represented public companies and directors and officers in some of Canada's largest investigations and proceedings involving disclosure violations, insider trading and other fraud-related allegations, corruption and anti-bribery, shareholders' remedies, litigation aspects of proxy contests, take-over bids and other acquisitions, corporate governance (including directors' and officers' liability) and securities class actions.

Wendy's experience includes representing:

- A public resource company in litigation and regulatory aspects of a contested proxy contest for control of the board of directors
- A founding shareholder in successfully contesting a multi-billion dollar acquisition transaction
- A public financial services company in a securities class action and regulatory investigation (with parallel US class action) alleging various financial and other disclosure violations
- A public mining company in litigation and regulatory aspects of a hostile takeover bid
- A public gold resource company in a securities class action (with parallel US class action) alleging misleading and inaccurate financial and operation disclosure in various public filings and statements
- A senior officer of a public resource company in an internal and external police and securities regulatory investigation involving disclosure violations and allegations of foreign corrupt practices

Accomplishments

In 2013, Wendy received the Lexpert Zenith Award, honouring leading women lawyers. In 2010 and 2011, Wendy was the Canadian recipient of the International Law Office (ILO) Client Choice Award for exceptional legal work and client service in the category of Litigation. Chosen from a pool of more than 2,000 nominees identified by corporate counsel worldwide, she was cited by her clients as providing real business value above and beyond other lawyers in the market based on the following criteria: quality of legal advice, value for money, commercial awareness, effective communication, response time, billing transparency, tailored fee structures, sharing of expertise and use of technology.

Wendy is also the co-author of the Canada chapter of The International Investigations Review (5th edition), published by Law Business Research Ltd. in July 2015.
