David Singh is an associate in our Business Law Group. His practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, private equity investments, securities, corporate finance and general corporate and commercial law.

Before joining Cassels Brock as an associate, David summered and articulated with the firm. During this time, David gained valuable experience assisting on a wide range of corporate transactions involving both public and private companies.

David received his JD from Queen's University in 2017. During his time at law school, David acted as an orientation leader and as a Pro Bono student volunteer, and completed an exchange semester with the University of Sydney in the Fall of 2016. Prior to studying law, David graduated with a Bachelor of Arts and Science in Environmental Studies and Economics from McGill University, and went on to complete a Master of Urban Planning at McGill, where his research focused on transnational environmental regulatory regimes in the mining industry. During his master's degree David was awarded a Graduate Excellence Scholarship.

In his spare time, David loves to travel, and to date has been to over 40 countries across 6 continents.
