Nico Elliott is a member of the 2019 - 2020 articling class at Cassels Brock.

Nico is a 2019 graduate of the University of Windsor, Faculty of Law. At Windsor Law, she was an active member of the community as a case worker with Community Legal Aid, as a member of Pro Bono Students Canada and as a Board Member of CJAM, Windsor's non-profit campus-based community radio station. In fall of 2019 Nico completed a diploma in international business law while on exchange to Université Jean Moulin III, in Lyon, France.

Prior to law school, Nico graduated with an honours Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Toronto. She went on to work in the film post-production sector in Toronto and in music publishing for a prominent Toronto independent record label.

In her spare time, Nico maintains her passion for the arts as a volunteer for Artists' Legal Advice Services of Toronto.
