Greg Hogan is a partner in the Securities Group at Cassels Brock, with a practice focused on corporate finance transactions, mergers and acquisitions, and related corporate and commercial matters. Greg provides advice on and executes public and private financings, domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, going-private transactions, divestitures and other commercial arrangements. Greg structures complex domestic and international transactions and negotiates key transaction terms and documents. He provides ongoing advice on securities law matters, compliance issues, corporate governance, and corporate law matters. He routinely acts for both issuers and investment dealers. Transactions have spanned numerous industries including technology, mining, oil and gas, utilities, telecommunications, financial services, retail and chemicals.

Greg leads the firm's Registration and Compliance Group, is a member of the Securities Group's opinions committee, and a member of the firm's Mining and Technology industry groups.

Greg joined Cassels Brock after spending more than seven years at two other national law firms with offices in Toronto.
