

Date: February 20, 2019

Experts for Getting the Deal Through in Restructuring & Insolvency: David Ward & Larry Ellis

Publish: 12/14/2017

David Ward and Larry Ellis recently contributed to "Getting the Deal Through – Restructuring & Insolvency 2018," a reference for restructuring and insolvency that covers over 40 jurisdictions worldwide.

In the series "Getting the Deal Through," leading practitioners answer a set of key questions to complete their chapter of the publication.

The Restructuring & Insolvency edition covers various topics, including: applicable legislation, excluded entities, secured lending and credit, competent courts, voluntary liquidations and reorganisations, involuntary liquidations and reorganisations, doing business during reorganisations, stays of proceedings and moratoria, set-off and netting, post-filing credit, expedited, successful and unsuccessful reorganisations, bankruptcy formalities, claims and appeals, voidable transactions, creditors' enforcement, director and officer liability and international cases.

To view this chapter on Restructuring & Insolvency in Canada, please click here.

Reproduced with permission from Law Business Research Ltd. Getting the Deal Through: Restructuring & Insolvency 2018, (published in November 2017; contributing editors: Catherine Balmond and Katharina Crinson, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer) For further information please visit gettingthedealthrough.com.