

Date: August 19, 2019

Steven Kennedy Named a "Rising Star" by ManagingIP

Publish: 10/03/2018

Steven Kennedy has been honoured by Managing Intellectual Property as a "Rising Star." This list recognizes the best-performing non-partners for their contributions to the success of their firms and clients and Steven is one of just 15 practitioners from across the nation to be listed. ( See the full listing here.)

A Registered Trade-Mark Agent, Steven's practice focuses on trademark and copyright law. He works with rights holders and brand owners to secure and enforce their intellectual property rights in Canada and abroad, and has appeared before the Federal and Ontario courts as well as administrative tribunals, including the Trademarks Opposition Board. He has been a member of leadership committees for the International Trademark Association since 2013, and currently serves as a member of the Non-Traditional Marks Committee.

ManagingIP was founded in 1990 and has been researching and ranking IP firms since 1996. As a well-respected publisher in the IP industry, their legal directory, IP Stars, is considered to be among the most authoritative and comprehensive.

Congratulations, Steven!