

Date: August 19, 2019

Michael Osborne and Chris Hersh Author Canada Chapter for ICLG's Cartels & Leniency 2019

Publish: 11/06/2018

Michael Osborne and Chris Hersh recently contributed to International Comparative Legal Guides' Cartels & Leniency 2019. In ICLG's products, leading practitioners answer a set of key questions to complete their nation's chapter of the publication.

In Cartels & Leniency 2019, Michael and Chris take a look at the following topics from a Canadian perspective:

- The legislative framework of cartel prohibition
- Investigative powers
- Sanctions on companies and individuals
- Leniency for companies
- Whistle-blowing procedures for individuals
- Plea bargaining arrangements
- Appeal process
- Damages actions

To view the Canada chapter of ICLG's Cartels & Leniency 2019, please click here.

The authors gratefully acknowledge the contributions of Tegan O'Brien in the preparation of this chapter.