Publish: 05/28/2019

Daniel Zuniga was profiled in the Calgary Herald on May 28 in an article entitled “Cassels Brock helps Calgary firms grow”.

Writes Joel Schlesinger: “While Cassels Brock is seeing tremendous growth within its oil and gas client base, it’s also quickly growing a base of clients from smaller, fast-growing firms involved in a wide variety of sectors.”

Daniel notes that “it’s very gratifying to act as a business adviser in their journey to success, as opposed to only legal counsel.... We have a smart, ambitious team here. I believe the sky is the limit in how we can help this city grow.”
