

Date: August 25, 2019

Securitization & Structured Finance

Cassels Brock has some of the leading Securitization and Structured Finance lawyers in the country. Members of our group have been recognized in several highly regarded national and international publications including the Guide to the World's Leading Structured Finance and Securitization Lawyers, The Lexpert/American Lawyer Guide to the Leading 500 Lawyers in Canada, Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers, The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory, and The International Who's Who of Business Lawyers, to name a few.

Supported by members of our financial services, securities and tax groups, we help our clients navigate the complex strategies involved in structuring financial transactions. Our dedicated group of lawyers have years of extensive industry experience and assist with even the most complicated structured finance deals covering all asset classes.

We represent issuers, sellers, investment bankers, asset-backed commercial paper conduits, credit enhancers, financial guarantee insurers, liquidity providers, trustees, lenders, borrowers and rating agencies in domestic and cross-border lending, securitization, covered bond, factoring and other commercial finance transactions involving corporate and consumer loans, residential and commercial mortgages, trade receivables, credit card receivables, conditional sale contracts, floorplan loans, motor vehicle and equipment loans and leases and natural resources.

Our clients include US and other international businesses and their Canadian subsidiaries with respect to their Canadian operations. As a multidisciplinary firm, members of our various practice groups seamlessly navigate between disciplines to provide our clients with the right services, at the right time.